ROOT HAS A TALK WITH ODELL

DIDN'T TELL ME HE WAS A CAN-DIDATE, ODELL SAYS.

Governor-Chairman Suspected of a Willingness to Run Again Himself if He Shall Decide That Roosevelt Will Carry the State-"Platt, Senator Emeritus."

Elihu Root had a talk with Governor-Chairman Odell at the Fifth Avenue Hotel yesterday afternoon. Mr. Root had a long and interesting talk with President Roosevelt at Oyster Bay early in the week. Because of that visit to the President and from his talk with Governor-Chairman Odell yesterday politicians and others be-gan again to speak of Mr. Root as the probable candidate of the Republicans for Governor this fall. Half a dozen Republicans at the Fifth Avenue Hotel last night had a slip from Monday's Sun on exhibition, which quoted one of President Roosevelt's friends as saying:

"If Mr. Root only lifted his little finger in signification that he was a candidate or that he would accept the nomination, no power in the State could prevent his nomnation. "Will Mr. Root accept the nomination for Governor?" the Governor-chairman was

"He didn't tell me that he was a candidate for Governor," replied the Governor-Chairman.

Mr. Root himself was equally communicative. Governor-Chairman Odell's adherents say they do not want Mr. Root nominated for Governor. "If Root was elected," one of them candidly admitted, "we couldn't do any business at Albany."

Governor-chairman Odell's political and financial organ in Newburg has opposed the nomination of Mr. Root for the least three months. The organ reflects Governor-Chairman Odell's sentiments on most matters. It has no criticism to pass on Mr. Root as a Republican, his abilities as a statesman or as a lawyer. It is simply opposed to his nomination for Governor. Occasionally it says Gov. Odell is the man to nominate for Governor. What's the matter with Gov. Odell for another term? Governor-Chairman's organ now makes this announcement:

The Governor-Chairman's organ now makes this announcement:

MIGHT BE SENATOR EMERITUS.

The Hon. Thomas C. Platt retired from leadership of the Republican party in this state last year because his mental and physical infirmities incapacitated him for the active duties of the position. The leadership passed to younger and abler hands, and the party has been harmonized and strengthened by the change. Mr. Platt retired from the leadership with honor and without sacrifice of dignity or self-respect. By general consent the title of leader emeritus was conferred upon him and the right to wear the red sash upon state occasons was vouchsefed him. The title of leader emeritus he to-day proudly carries and always will carry. It was a happy arrangement by which the party changed leaders, when it became necessary without friction or hard feeling, and with cheers for the old chieftain for what he has accomplished for Republicanism along with cheers for the new chieftain for what he is expected to accomplish.

All of which suggests, why couldn't some such arrangement also be applied if Mr. Platt, recognizing, as almost every one does, that the same infirmities that incapacitated him for longer leading the party incapacitate him for representing the State in the United States Senate, should decide to retire, giving his place to a younger and more active and capable man? If Mr. Platt should resign as United States Senator, what objection, if any, would there be to his assuming the title of Senator emeritus? Such title would signify completion of faithful public service and honorable retirement. We should think the privilege to bear the title Senator emeritus is to his political activity as the privilege to bear the title leader emeritus is to his political activity.

A week before the Republican national convention was held at Chicago one of Governor-Chairman Odell's closest adherents said:

The Governor is a candidate for a third

The Governor is a candidate for a third term. He is waiting to ascertain the drift of Republican sentiment in the State. If it is attemption as sentiment in the state. If it is attempt for Roosevelt and the Governor is convinced that Roosevelt can carry New York State by a big plurality, Odell will insist on his own nomination on the ground that Roosevelt will carry him through. After the national convention Gov. Odell is to start the machinery at State head. is to start the machinery at State head-quarters in the Fifth Avenue Hotel to ascer-tain-the sentiment of the voters in New York State for Roosevelt. If, as I say, Gov. Odell believes he can run in under Roosevelt's wing he'll be the candidate again for Gov-ernor."

Governor-Chairman Odell since his return from Chicago has busied himself examining the election figures in all of the counties of the State. He has also prepared elaborate plans for ascertaining the drift of Roosevelt sectiment in the State before the Republican State convention convenes at Saratoga on Sept. 14.

Other Republicans who discussed the Governor-Chairman's plans said: "Odel would be beaten 200,000 if he runs again."

FOLK TICKET COMPLETED. Missouri Democrats in Session Almost

Continuously for Thirty Hours. JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., July 21.-The Democrats of Missouri finished the work of nominating their full State ticket this evening, after almost thirty hours of continuous convention work. In the early hours of the morning Joseph Wingate Folk of St. Louis was named for Governor, with only scattering and ineffective opposition. With only a few hours intermission for breakfast, after a practically all night session, the convention reassembled and named the balance of the ticket. The ticket named is for "reform and good government," and "anti-boodle" so far the head of it is concerned. The platform indorses Parker for the Presidency and commends the national platform. It is essentially an anti-boodle, anti-bribery document. Corruption and how to cure it is its text. is its text.

'The proceedings last night were turbulent from opening to close, at times riqtous. It remained for the closing hours to turnish the dramatic incident of the convention.

Nominations for Railroad Commissioner were the last to be made, for which position there were many aspirants. Rube Oglesby of Warrensburg was aided in his canvass by a bevy of girls, who were headed by his flance, Miss Hunt. These young ladies had buttonholed delegates every hour of every day during the convencion, soliciting votes for their candi date. When the result was announced, giving the nomination to Oglesby, three delegates picked Miss Hunt up in their arms, hoisted her to their should-up in their arms, hoisted her to their shoulders and led the march around the hall, shouting and oheering for the Warrensburg man and his fiancée. It was the prettiest banner hoisted during the convention.

Here is the complete ticket nominated: Governor, Joseph W. Folk of St. Louis; Lieutenant-Governor, Thomas L. Rubey of Laplata; Secretary of State, Samuel B. Cock of Mexico; State Auditor, Albert O. Allen of New Madrid; State Treasurer, James Cowgill of Kansas City; Attorney-General, Elliott W. Majors of Bowling Green; Railroad Commissioner, R. M. Oglesby of Warrensburg; Chairman State committee, W. N. Evans of West Plains; Electors at Large, R. H. Kern of Macon and Col. M. C. Wetmore of St. Louis.

BATH, N. Y., July 21.-The Hon. William J. Tully of Corning was to-day unanimously nominated by the Republicans for State Senator from the Eorty-first district to succeed Franklin D. She-wood of Hornells-ville. Four ballots were taken. Mr. Tully is a lawyer and is connected with Corning Glass Company. He has been chairman of the Steuben county board of supervisors for the last three years. the last three years.

MURDER CALL BY 'PHONE.

McFariane's Revenge That Went Astray When the Beserves Turned Out. James McFarlane, a laborer who lives at 220 East Seventy-sixth street, said in the Yorkville police court yesterday that he was sorry he had caused trouble by reporting a fictitious murder to the police. He called up Police Headquarters on Wednesday night on the telephone and said there was a murder at 422 East Seventy-sixth street.

'Who was killed?" asked the operator. "McCarthy killed his wife, and unless you hurry up he'll murder all the other tenants, the villain," the voice answered. The operator called up the East Sixtyseventh street station and told the sergeant, and two policemen were hustled out on the run. Near the house they met Policeman Boyle sauntering along on post trying to keep cool.

"What about that murder on your post?"
one of the two asked Boyle as they stopped long enough to catch their breath.

"I haven't heard of any murder," Boyle answered.

"McCarthy's on a tear and has killed his wife," the other said, and the three hurried on. At the street door of the house they met McFarlane and asked him if he had sent the message to Police Headquarters.

"Sure. The man's upstairs now. I'll show you the man," he replied.

He led the three policemen upstairs. They pushed open the door and found McCarthy quietly sitting at one end of the table and his wife sitting at the other end.

"So your wife is not dead?" one of the was?" answered the man.

There were an empty pitcher and some glasses on the table. The policemen learned that the McCarthys had been entertaining their friend McFarlane during the evening, and after several pitchers of beer had been disposed of the visitor tried to kiss Mrs. McCarthy. Her husband promptly threw him out of the rooms.

McFarlane was indignant over his ejectment and sought revenge by telephoning to Police Headquarters.

A complaint of calling out the police reserves without cause was made against him in court, and Magistrate Mayo fined him $5, in default of which he was sent to jail.

NATIONAL COMMITTEE CALL.

Chairman Jones Summons the Members to Meet Here July 26.

St. Louis, July 21.-Senator James K Jones of Arkansas arrived in St. Louis this morning, and, as retiring chairman of this morning, and, as retiring chairman of the Democratic national committee, issued the call for a meeting of the national committee. It follows:

"Under the authority of the Democratic national convention, I hereby call the Democratic national committee to meet at the Hoffman House, New York city, on Tuesday, July 26, at 12 o'clock noon, for the purpose of organizing and transacting such other business as may come before the committee.

JAMES K. JONES."

First Ballad of the Campaign.

The colored Republican club held a meeting last night at its headquarters, 138 West Fifty-third street, to indorse the nomination of Roosevelt and Fairbanks. There was very little speechifying at the meeting. Charles Anderson, the president of ing. Charles Anderson, the president of the club, brought together for the enter-tainment of the crowd which filled the club-house, some of the best known professional colored singers of the city. The feature of the evening was the launching of a Roosevelt campaign song, composed by Cole and Johnson, the colored vaude-ville team. The easy swing of the music to which it was set quickly caught the audience. One of the verses ran:

Oh. Mr. Parker thinks.

Oh, Mr. Parker thinks.
That he is like the Sphinz.
But we're inclined to think he is a clam.
He's bound to get a till

TAGGART LEADS IN THE TALK

ABOUT DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL

John W. Kern Says the East and South Entitled to the Chairman—Davis Goes

South-The Eastern Headquarters. There was a bunch of Democrats last night at the Hoffman House, including Norman E. Mack, Democratic National Committeeman for the State, John B. McDonald and Supreme Court Justice Morgan J. O'Brien, all three of whom have ust visited Judge Parker at Esopus, and John W. Kern of Indiana. Thomas Taggart, Democratic National Committeeman for Indiana, who has been visiting relatives in Flatbush since his arrival from Indianapolis two days ago, is to take up his quarters at the Hoffman House to-day. The Democratic national committee is o meet at the Hoffman House on Tuesday and perfect an organization by electing a chairman, a secretary and a sergeant-atarms and naming the various campaign committees which are to have charge of the fortunes of Judge Parker and Henry G. Davis, both at the New York headquarters and the Chicago headquarters, which are to be opened as soon as possible after the national organization is completed. Mr. Kern has visited Judge Parker and Mr. Kern has visited Judge Parker and he has been camping on the ground for the last week, insisting that Mr. Taggart is the right man to elect for chairman of the Democratic national committee. Mr. Kern said last night that Mr. Taggart is 42 years old; that the Democratic campaign this year needs a young, vigorous and determined chairman, and that Mr. Taggart will fulfil these conditions. Mr. Kern believed that Mr. Taggart's selection as chairman was as sure as anything in politics. Mr. Kern added:

Mr. Taggart's selection as chairman was as sure as anything in politics. Mr. Kern added:

"The Eastern Democrats have got the candidate for Precident and the Southern Democrats have got the candidate for Vice-President, and we people of the Middle West, representing at the same time the Far West, believe that we should have the chairman, and I am convinced that Mr. Taggart is the man who is to be selected on Tuesday."

Still, a great many Democrats continue to insist that Senator Gorman of Maryland should be the chairman. Senator Gorman has declared that he cannot accept the place, but that he is willing to put his shoulder to the wheel in any capacity that will aid the candidacy of Parker and Davis. Since it became known that Mr. Gorman positively declines to be chairman, the old talk about William F. Sheehan taking the place has been revived, but Mr. Sheehan has made it quite as plain as Senator Gorman that he cannot be considered for the place. So the situation last night to a certain extent was without change; as announced in The Sun on Tuesday—all the drift favors the election of Mr. Taggart.

Ex-Uni ed States Sena'or Henry G. Davis, Democratic candidate for Vice-President, left for Bedford Springs yesterday morning. He confirmed the news that there are to be two no ifica ion ceremonies, one for Judge Parker at Esopus and the other probably at White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., for himself.

As soon as the Democratic national committee is organized a hunt for a building in which the Eastern headquarters are to be maintained will be begun. It was the proposition last night to have a building either on Fifth avenue or Broadway adjacent to Madison Square Park.
